

GERMAN HAMMERING TACTICS AT WARSAW MAKE SMALL GAINS

VON HINDENBURG KEEPS CZAR'S CRACK REGIMENT FROM CARPATHIAN CAM-PAIGN.

German Hurl Close Formations against Battle Line in Northwestern France Aiming Attack on British.

Field Marshal Von Hindenburg's new drive at Warsaw apparently has accomplished little more than far the winning of a comparatively few Russian advanced positions. Neither the Berlin nor the Petrograd official reports indicate that marked changes have resulted from the fighting, which daily becomes more intense.

The German commander has chosen to make his principal assaults along the front about thirty miles due west of Warsaw, which is the same section in which the Germans vainly attempted to break through on their previous attempts to reach Warsaw. Both sides occupy strongly entrenched positions.

Russian successes in this region, and also in the Carpathians are claimed in today's Petrograd official statement.

Russian troops are said to have made marked progress in the Dukla pass, advancing over the crest of the mountains, and to have repulsed an Austrian assault south of Bukov pass.

Fighting continues between British and Turkish forces in Arabia, near the head of the Persian Gulf, where small forces of Turks have taken the offensive. An attack on Kurma, near the junction of the Euphrates and Tigris rivers, was stopped by the fire of British guns.

According to the German version of the recent fighting in Poland the Russians have been forced back near Bol-
low. The Germans captured a village and 4,000 prisoners. Russian attacks elsewhere, the German war office asserts, were repulsed.

Except for a renewal of infantry fighting near Perthes, only artillery exchanges were in progress yesterday, in France and Belgium. Neither side gained.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
London, Feb. 3.—British military experts are unable to explain the sudden and violent offensive movements begun by the Germans to the west of Warsaw in Russian Poland and in the vicinity of La Basse on the northwestern end of the battle line in France.
In both these regions there has been a return to the old style of German battling, the line being pushed forward in close formation at great sacrifice, with, British reports say, little permanent gain.

In some Gains At Warsaw.
In Russian Poland the Germans are holding some ground in front of Warsaw which these attacks netted, but the recent German onslaughts on the western battlefield, military officials assert, almost invariably have resulted in failure to consolidate the positions gained.

It is suggested that Field Marshal Von Hindenburg, the German commander, is again hammering toward the Polish capital, but the fact of holding there Emperor Nicholas's crack troops which otherwise might be transferred to the Carpathians, where the Russian and Austro-German forces are fighting in the mountain passes.

La Basse, 12 miles south of the Belgian border, long has been a crucial point on the western front and the German troops congregated in the neighborhood have suffered heavily.

Aim Attack On British.
The Germans have declared time and again that other things being equal, they would prefer to inflict losses upon the British, and this together with the better preparation of the ground by the artillery, may account for the renewed slaughter.

English newspapers are commenting extensively on the menace to believed to exist in the German plan to find in Germany submarine parties likely to merchant shipping. The papers are filled with editorial advice as to how skippers should act in case of attack. The most conservative writers hold that a steamer should not attempt to attack a submarine as this would place her in the category of a naval opponent and leave no reason why the submarine should spare the crew.

German Report.
Berlin, wireless to Sayville, Feb.
3.—According to a dispatch today from Constantinople given out by the Over-Sea News Agency, a Russian squadron of the Black Sea fleet at Ar-tvin in the Transcaucasus, 34 miles southeast of Batumi, was repulsed with heavy losses in men and war material for the Russian. The Turkish troops, the report says, thereby made a successful attack against two Russian battalions.

The Turkish war office has denied a report that an attempt has been made to assassinate Field Marshal Baron Kolmar von Goltz, German army officer, who was sent to Turkey to take charge of the Turkish army in the Caucasus.

Washington, Feb. 3.—Russia today informed the United States that the distribution of money, food and clothing to German and Austrian prisoners in Siberia would be permitted only if the Russian military authorities declining to give foreign relief expenses that privilege. An American expedition has started from Peking.

POLISH GIRL TOOK PART IN THE RUSSIAN CAMPAIGN

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Moscow, Feb. 3.—Among the wounded who have arrived in Moscow from the front is Olga Krasnikova, a girl of 19 years. After taking part in 19 battles in Poland she was wounded in the foot.

The girl enlisted under a man's name and this deception has just been discovered. A cross of St. George fourth degree has been awarded to her.

KAISER PAYS VISIT TO NAVAL STATION

Emperor William Inspects Warships
Recently Damaged in North Sea Fighting.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Berlin, via London, Feb. 3.—Emperor William will leave today for Wilhelmshaven, the second most important naval station in Germany, to inspect the warships stationed there.
He will have an opportunity to look over the unit of the squadron which participated in the North Sea battle, including the Seydlitz, which was squarely hit by one shell, and the Kolberg, which was struck by two.
The emperor, who already has visited both the west and east fronts, will complete his inspection of the empire's armed forces by visiting the units of the newly organized army still garrisoned in Germany.

BELIEVE WARNING MEANS A BLOCKADE

Berlin Newspapers Take Meaning by Predicting a German Blockade on the French Coast.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Berlin, via Sayville, Feb. 3.—The warning of the German admiralty concerning operations on the French coast, is considered by some Berlin newspapers, among them the Morgenpost, to mean that an actual blockade is to be put into effect by the Germans.

The Morgen Post, however, points out that many of the essentials of blockade are lacking, among them being a definite description of boundaries and a warning that neutral ships must not enter the forbidden zone.

KARLSRUHE SIGHTED NEAR WEST INDIES?

Officers of Steamer Isabella Claim to Have Seen German Tramp
Ship in Atlantic Waters.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
New York, Feb. 3.—A four funneled cruiser, thought at that time to be either the German cruiser Karlsruhe, which was sighted in the Atlantic, or the Isabella, a German tramp ship, was sighted on Jan. 15 in the Indian western, according to declarations made today by the Isabella's officers on arrival in New York.

The warship sailed as to the whereabouts of the former Hamburg-American liner President, converted into a German auxiliary cruiser.

The meeting of the Isabella and the warship, the Isabella's officers said, occurred about eight o'clock in the evening when the steamer was on her way from San Juan to Mayaguez, another Porto Rican port. It was too dark to establish the warship's identity they said.

The Karlsruhe has four funnels—
the Isabella only three.

KAISERHOF HOTEL AT CHICAGO HAS BLAZE

Loop District Turns Out Entire Apparatus, as Upper Stories of Scorper Causes Loss
of $20,000.

Chicago, Feb. 3.—Practically every piece of fire fighting apparatus in "the loop" responded to an alarm from the Kaiserhof Hotel, whose upper stories were attacked by a blaze that routed guests today. The flames and splatters crowded the streets, completely blocking traffic.

There seemed but little chance of the fire harming the new Kaiserhof, a skyscraper adjoining, but some fear was felt for the other buildings in the block, including the Victoria hotel.

Among the guests driven out was Samuel Gompers, president of American Federation of Labor.

The fire was confined to the upper floor of the hotel. The loss was about $20,000.

GREENE ON WITNESS STAND FOR 2 HOURS

Secretary of Rockefeller Foundation Appears Before Federal Commission, Explaining Workings.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
New York, Feb. 3.—Jerome D.
Greene, secretary of the Rockefeller foundation and formerly a member of the personal staff of John D. Rockeefeller, spent two hours and a half on the witness stand today before the federal commission on industrial relations, explaining the workings of the foundation, his personal activities and opinions of the charter under which the foundation is doing business.

Mr. Greene said that since the start of the Rockefeller foundation about a year ago, the foundation itself had dispensed in gifts $1,834,000 on its own behalf and $3,116,000 on behalf of Mr. Rockefeller. All told the foundation has expended against $1, 000,000 for Belgian relief.

MAMMOTH FLEET OF FIFTY-SEVEN VESSELS TO PASS THROUGH PANAMA CANAL IN MARCH; FAMOUS OLD OREGON TO BE IN LINE

Battleship Oregon (left); Rear Admiral Charles E. Clarke, retired; Utah leaving New York on way to Panama canal; battleship Wyom-

Fifty-seven naval vessels will make up the fleet which will go to San Francisco by way of the Panama canal in March. Twenty-one of these vessels will be battleships, and they will be headed by the dreadnought Spanish-American war, will be in line, commanded by Rear Admiral Clark, who is now retired. One of the accompanying photos shows the battleship Utah as she left New York a few days ago on her way to the canal.

VAN HORN GUARDED; PLAN EXTRADITION

German Held for Dynamiting C. P.
Railroad Bridge, Held in Custody at Vancouver.

Vancouver, Me., Feb. 3.—Werner
Van Horn, who was arrested here yesterday after attempting to blow up the Canadian end of the railway bridge between this town and St.
Croix, N. B., was carefully guarded at the immigration offices throughout the night. No formal charge had been preferred against Van Horn, who said he was an officer in the German army, and that he had exploded the dynamite as an act of war.

He made no objections to his detention in custody of a county deputy sheriff, but insisted that he had committed no offense, for which he could be extradited to Canada.
It was thought here that the next development in the case would be at Washington, where it was expected that the application for Van Horn's extradition forwarded by the Canadian government, would be presented to the state department today.

Asks Protection.
Werner Van Horn, who attempted to blow up the railway bridge here yesterday, today appealed to the German ambassador at Washington, Count von Bernstorff. He told the ambassador that he had not been on Canadian soil and asked for protection from extradition to Canada.

Court Issues Warrant.
Under the auspices of Canadian officials a court session was held last night at McAdam Junction, just across the New Brunswick border, at which testimony was given before a police magistrate, who issued a warrant against Van Horn.

No service was made on the prisoner, however, local authorities had decided that the warrant had no legal standing unless accompanied by an order for extradition.

Grounds for Extradition.
St. John, N. B., Feb. 3.—The information laid against Werner Van Horn upon which the Canadian authorities seek his extradition from Vancouver, Maine, was stated today by J. B. Baxter, attorney general of New Brunswick, to be based on section 282 of the criminal code.
This section is as follows:
"Everyone is guilty of an indictable offense and liable to life imprisonment, who unlawfully with attempt to injure or endanger the safety of any persons traveling or being on any railway, injured or destroyed any transverse bridge or cause of said railway or any other portion thereof."

Mr. Baxter said that if Van Horn were brought to Canada and be indicted, he would be tried in Charlotte county, N. B. The offense charge he said was covered by an extension made in 1906 of the extraordinary rendezvous between Canada and the United States, pronouncing the extraditable any "wilful and unlawful destruction or construction of railroads which endangers human life."

WATER MAIN BURSTS; BIG LOSS ESTIMATED

Eighth Avenue, New York City, Is Scene of Many Flooded Cellars—Water Reaches Depth of 2 Feet.

New York, Feb. 3.—The damage done by the bursting of a water main at 42nd street and 8th avenue, last night, was estimated today at $100, 000, almost all of which was due to the flooding of cellars for several blocks along 8th avenue.
The torrent of water in some places reached a depth of two feet. After the water had been turned off in six mains, the break was believed to be either in a 30-inch or a 6-inch main.

PLANS COMMISSION COMBINING SEVERAL STATE DEPARTMENTS

Senator Johnson Proposes a State Conservation Board of Three Members—Weigle's Confirmation Laid Over.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Madison, Feb. 3.—Senator Johnson introduced a bill on Tuesday which creates a new commission to be known as the state conservation commission. It is to consist of three members, whose terms will be four years.
The commission is to take over the work of the present state conservation commission, the fish and game department, the state board of forestry, the department of agriculture, and the commissioners of fisheries.

Confirmation is Laid Over.
The confirmation of the appointment of George J. Weigle as dairy and food commissioner, which came up for action in the senate Tuesday, was laid over for one week.

Senator Culbertson wished to have it laid over for two weeks. Senator Johnson, however, strenuously objected to such delay and amended the motion so the appointment would be taken up for consideration Thursday.
Senator Scott suggested that the confirmation go over for one week. This was finally agreed to, the bill being laid over for two weeks.

The appointment of James O. Davison as president of the state board of control will be taken up on Thursday, and that of Walter Alexander as chairman of the finance committee.
There appears an inclination on the part of the anti-administration men to delay confirmation.

Report on Expenditures.
Senator Akeley introduced a resolution on Tuesday calling on the heads of different departments to report to the senate on the money expended in their departments. Senator Scott,
chairman of the finance committee,
said the information would be on the senators' desks next week.

Legislature Tuesday was brief. In the assembly half a score of bills were introduced while in the senate but two came in. One, introduced by Senator Potts, provides for a central polling place in each of the four counties. The senate would have the voting done in one room in which should be placed ballot boxes for each county. The object is to cut down the expense of elections by reducing the number of election officials.

The second bill was introduced by Senator Culbertson and provides for the organization of mutual fire associations.

An attempt will be made to remove municipally owned plants for furnishing light heat or water from the jurisdiction of the state railroad commission. A bill to that effect, affecting cities of the first second and third classes, was introduced in the assembly on Tuesday by Assemblyman H.
J. Grell.

A bill introduced by Assemblyman
C. A. Budington provides that county boards can prohibit all Sunday work that is not a work of necessity or charity.

Another bill introduced by Mr.
Johnson prohibits anyone from hunting property on his own or allowing his dog to go among growing or standing grain. A trespass sign is to be sufficient to keep trespassers out.
A penalty of from $5 to $25 is provided for violation of the law.

Members of the legislature, were slow in getting back.

CHILD TO INHERIT SLINGSBY FORTUNE

London Probate Court Passes Upon Legitimacy of Son of Charles R.
Slingsby at San Francisco.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
London, Feb. 3.—A probate court decided today that the son of Charles R. Slingsby is the legitimate heir to the $500,000 baronial property of the Slingsby family in Yorkshire. The case has been before the court for nearly two years.

Charles R. Slingsby, formerly a lieutenant in the British navy, and afterward a resident of San Francisco, is in possession of the property which was devised to his offspring. When he asked the court to confirm the succession, a younger brother protested on the ground that the child was not a legitimate son, but an infant substituted by the lieutenant's wife
when her own child died.

Since the case has been on trial evidence has been taken in California and records produced there to prove the child the legitimate son and heir of the Slingsby property.

FLAMES KILL NINE IN BOARDING HOUSE

Six Others Badly Injured in Fire in Small Pennsylvania Town
Early Today.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Kane, Pa., Feb. 3.—Nine men were killed and six badly burned in a fire following an explosion which destroyed a boarding house at Mayburg, a small town in Forest County early today. The injured are being brought to the hospital here.

The men, mostly wanderers of whom little was known, were employed in the forests as woodmen and at night slept in the cheese cloth labeled frame building erected for them.
The house was heated by gas and is believed increased pressure in the main caused an explosion which fired the building.

WAR HAS DISORGANIZED ALL LEGAL PROCEDURE; MANY LAWYERS KILLED

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Paris, Feb. 3.—Legal procedure in France has been disorganized by the war. Lawyers and witnesses in many civil suits are at the front; many of them have fallen in battle and no one can now anticipate the extent to which cases may be confused by the disappearance of parties as well as witnesses and attorneys.

Maitre Chenu, the eloquent attorney for the Calmette family in the Calmette case, and former chief of the order of advocates of the Parisian bar, says that death certificates are such an essential element in all legal procedure concerning inheritances, and among the habits none have a better knowledge of the law than the number of probable tangled estates is incalculable.

"For the moment," Maitre Chenu adds, "judicial life in France is almost entirely interrupted and will continue to languish until the end of hostilities. We don't regret it. Legal quarrels would seem to us to be an attack upon the sacred pact of union that the war has sealed between all the citizens of France."

The business of civil courts is almost entirely confined to the sequestration of the property of German and Austrian subjects and the list of ready long, grows every day showing that the number established in business in France was far underestimated.
Instead of the 20,000 sequestra-tions anticipated the number may reach nearly 50,000.

The practical suspension of court proceedings gives Maitre Chenu leasure to use his pen and in the Parisian press he is sparing no effort to defend the justice of the French cause.

SUITS AGAINST SHIP COMPANIES DISMISSED

Federal Anti-Trust Proceeding Dismissed as War Has Stopped Combination Alleged In Complaint.

New York, Feb. 3.—The government's anti-trust suits against the Princess line, the Hamburg-American line, the Kaiser Line, and others charging restraint of trade in connection with freight and passenger steamship business between American ports and Europe and against the American Asiatic steamship company and others whose steamships ply between New York and Asiatic ports, were dismissed today.

The government's suits were filed about two years ago. That against the Princess line and others charged that the companies composed the so-called Brazilian conference; defend-ents of the other suits were all members of the so-called Far Eastern conference, it was alleged.

The federal district court was asked by the government to declare each of the communications illegal and to enjoin certain alleged practices in conducting the business.

In dismissing the petition against the Princess line and its co-defendants, which include a British line and two German lines, Judge Lacombe asserts that the combination complained of
has been practically dissolved as a result of the European war.

QUARANTINE PEOPLE TO STOP EPIDEMIC

Sick Animal is Dangerous, Say Veterinary Speakers at Missouri Valley Meeting.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Kansas City, Feb. 3.—Quarantine
not only of stock but of men, women, children, dogs and cats, is the only way to eradicate the foot and mouth disease, according to speakers before the Missouri Valley Veterinary association in session here today.

The prevalence of the foot and mouth disease was the principal topic for discussion. Farmers were urged also to use food from infected districts.
"Public education of the general public is the essential in the final solution of this trouble," said Dr. J. W. Conway, the secretary of the Missouri Valley association.

A farmer must isolate a sick animal in his herd is dangerous and must be isolated immediately. An individual quarantine is the best way to stamp out the disease.

DEMOCRATS GUARDING PLANS ON SHIP BILL

Seek Aid From Progressive Republicans to Overcome Party Vote Lost Caused by Revolt.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Washington, Feb. 3.—Closely guarded plans of the senate administration democrats, for saving the ship bill provide it developed today for leaving the bolting democrats out of the debating entirely, and making the bill irreconcilable to enough progressive republicans to overcome the defections.

The plan as finally agreed upon was to move an amendment to the motion to instruct the committee to amend the bill to return to the house.

Amendments providing that the government should not lease ships to private corporations for a period longer than 12 months, and that no ships of belligerent nations be bought coast-ward would disturb the neutrality of the United States.

HAD 42-CENTIMETER GUN AT CHICAGO WORLD'S FAIR

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Amsterdam, Feb. 3.—The notion that the 42-centimeter gun is a great novelty is repeated by Messrs.
Krupp in a statement issued a few days ago. It says:

At the exhibition a 42-centimeter gun of Krupp's design was displayed in 1893. This, however, was a defense gun, and was not transportable in the field like our 42-centimeter gun. It was merely a curiosity, one of our large guns which we have thwarted abroad could not believe in.

"In our catalogue at the Chicago World's Fair, we stated that our 42-centimeter gun was one of the most powerful existing weapons, and was capable of shooting through the strongest ship armor at any distance likely to come into question in an engagement."

"Our first 42-centimeter gun was built in 1886."

CITY OF SAINT QUENTIN NOTING LOSS OF SIEGES DURING LAST FIVE MONTHS

Paris, Feb. 3.—Saint Quentin, where the Germans made a stand that retarded the German advance and incited Joffre's strategic retreat, has been for nearly five months within constant sound of the guns pounding each other along the line from Royaumont to Peronne.

News received by underground channels, the town has otherwise experienced little of the rigors of war.
Never has the city been so quiet and so animated. The coming and going of motor cars filled with officers is incessant as this is the headquarters of some of the big guns of the German army who are comfortably lodged in the elegant villas of the Champagne sees. Every afternoon officers crowd the pastry-cook establishments of which the animation rivals the most boisterous of the Parisian cafes.

Enormous quantities of tea, chocolate and cakes are requisitioned daily and
among the habits none have a better appetite than Prince August Wilhelm, the emperor's youngest son, who is always the center of the most animated group.

The emperor himself made a short visit to St. Quentin, lodging at the ancient Charles Basquin on the Champagne. The bank Lecuyer-Jourdain, the Cardier Asylum, the Farvacques and the Henri Martin Lyceum and the Girly Lyceum are constantly filled with German wounded who are sent to hospitals further in the rear
as fast as their condition permits.

Transvaal's output of gold for 1914 shows a total of $15,000,000 below the

was $3,730,000 ounces, valued at $178,

LAUDS EMPEROR FOR HIS GOOD QUALITIES

DR. LUDWIG GANGHOFFER, AU-THOR, TELLS OF RECENT VISIT WITH KAISER
WILLIAM.

GOOD WORD FOR ENEMY

German Ruler Speaks Justly of Accomplishments of Allied Forces.
—Says Germans Have Morale.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
Munich, Germany, Feb. 3.—The Neueste Nachrichten has published an interview with Dr. Ludwig Gang-hofer, the German author, in which he gives a furnished account of the writer's recent visit to Emperor William at the imperial headquarters. Dr. Gang-hofer said:

"I heard and saw an example of the emperor's quiet patience with standards of states that should be instructive to all. The mark of such a nature imbued him, but in his greatest excitement he never loses the mastery of his tongue. I heard him say in such a case: 'That is strong, but it is silly also. It is fortunate that truth always is wiser in the long run and that it has longer legs.'"

"The night conduct of individual opponents in the field gladdens Emperor William," continued Dr. Gang-hofer, "and I have heard him say many speak so justly and appreciatively of the good qualities, the courage and the accomplishments of the nation's enemy. Even against England I heard from the emperor no unreasonable word spoken in anger. Ever verdict he pronounces, severe as it sometimes is, is always within the sounds of supreme reserve. Nevertheless there is a slight but hardly noticeable vibration in his majesty's voice when the subject is our Germanic cousin across the channel."

"You are a sportsman. When in a horse race, the weaker animals gradually drop out and only the two strongest are left, have you ever seen the jockey of the horse which threatens to fall bend and strike with his whip at the jockey with the more ambitious and stronger animal?"

The man questioned shook his head. "The emperor continued at us why does he not rather strike at her own weakening horse?"

"Yet other words of the emperor must be heard, the emperor said. He quotes Dr. Ganghofer as saying: 'On one occasion he made this remark:
'Many people who judge us Germans solely by outward polish and term us barbarians, such as the English, do not see that we have a deep sense of civilization and culture. England certainly is a highly civilized nation.
One notices this always in the drawing rooms. But we have a deeper morale to possess deep conscience and high morale.

DOUGHERTY DRAWS UP NEW BOND ORDINANCE

CITY ATTORNEY OUTLINES MEASURE PROVIDING FOR $265,000 WATERWORKS ISSUE.

HOLD MEETING TODAY

City Commissioners Will Discuss Various Problems Connected With Taking Over the Plant.

A resolution instructing City Attorney W. H. Dougherty to draw an ordinance authorizing a bond issue for the amount of $265,000 for the purchase of the waterworks will be brought before the council at the adjourned meeting this afternoon. The resolution was read by Mayor James A. Fathens at the regular meeting yesterday, but as the commission, as yet, has not received a copy of the decision made by the state railroad commission, or even official word of the latter's decision, the council adjourned the meeting until this afternoon before discussing the means of taking over the waterworks plant.

The resolution fixing the salaries for the appointed city officers for the coming year, including that of the plumbing inspector, will be considered today. It is not known whether there are any changes on the list, as the resolution was not read at yesterday's meeting. The city clerk J. P. Hammarlund was directed to see that the city council received a decision from the commission, and remarks were made there to the effect that the city or the water company and receive official notice of the valuation. A copy of the decision was received by the Gazette and a certified copy is expected today by the city.

P. H. Quinn and Thomas Mackin appeared before the council and asked for a permit to lower the roof of the building on North River street, across from the station, one story, and to make repairs on the structure, which in the opinion of the city authorities is damaged more than 60 per cent. Permission to erect a galvanized iron fence to hide the view of the building was requested, and the council stated that no permit could be granted for the erection of such a fence on the street or street line.

The buildings on this street are declared to be on the street line, and the objection of any property owner might make the owners liable to move back the structure to conform with the street line.

The petition made by P. H. Quinn to lower the building one story, and to use the second floor with other roofing, was accepted and referred to the city engineer for recommendation.

Mayor Fathens announced that a new ordinance was announced, which would allow the word "decay" to be inserted in the ordinance which damages the repairing of buildings.

Recent decision by Judge Quinn, which made in an action against Quinn, prevents a property owner from repairing a building within the five limit of "an act of God," but the present regulation does not cover structures damaged by natural depreciation.

The board of public works made a report on the recommendation to be constructed during the summer of this year. The report will be acted upon by the council, probably at this afternoon's meeting, when a resolution ordering the work recommended by the board of public works in the report as follows: District No. 5—Wall street, from Center to Madison, south of Hickory street, District No. 10—Glen street, from Center to Oakland avenue, north of Hickory street, from center of Glen to point 450 feet south, District No. 11—Caroline street, from center of Hickory street to center of Walker street, Fifth avenue, from center of Walker street to a point 425 feet north, Yuba street, from center of Walker street to a point 425 feet north, District No. 12—Tiger avenue, from center of Elm street to center of Ringold street to the north, District No. 15—Garfield avenue, from center of Racine street to a point 125 feet east of center of Vella street, Forest Park boulevard, from center of Garfield avenue to South Second street.

The council passed a resolution for the paving of South Wisconsin street from Third street to Oakland avenue with asphalt macadam, the cost of which should be assessed to the property owners according to their benefit and damages by the improvement.

The board of public works was ordered by the resolution to view the property and prepare the assessment schedule, which will be subject to a public hearing. Discussion of the paving of other streets, including South Franklin street, is expected to come up in the near future to enable the commission to obtain an early start on the work by completing the necessary legal steps.

HEAR FINE TALKS AT M. E. BROTHERHOOD

A. G. Austin, M. S. Kellogg and Prof. West on Program—Whitten Favors Rest Room Proposition.

Over sixty members of the Methodist church brotherhood, including many of the younger men of the church, attended the February meeting of the organization last evening, opening with an elaborate banquet at the room of the church.

After the repast, a short business session was in order, when the proposition of bringing to Janesville, a speaker to speak at the union brotherhood banquet was discussed. The boys' male quartet of the church sang a selection in opening the program for the evening. This was followed by a talk by "A Farm Dairy Herd" by Alva G. Austin. Mr. Austin took the opportunity in his talk to explain the drawbacks in buying cattle, not only at the present time, but always.

M. S. Kellogg was the next speaker. His topic was "Horticultural Outlook in Wisconsin." Under this topic the speaker explained the life of the apple tree and possibilities for bettering this particular tree in Wisconsin. This was followed by a talk by "A Farm Dairy Herd" by Alva G. Austin.

LADIES ARE READY TO RESUME CANVASS

Civic League Committees Will Continue to Solicit for Hitch Barn Rest Rooms.

Since the merchants understand better the plan of redecorating and returning the women's rest rooms connected with the East and West Side hitch barns, the committee feels encouraged to resume their soliciting.

The east side merchants have not been taken into account, but if the weather is favorable, it will be collected in four monthly payments, the merchants will be able to provide more comfortable surroundings for their trade. Let it also be understood that the new furnishings will be the property of the Civic League, and the rooms properly cared for and kept clean by the managers of the hitch barns. They have both been interviewed and are glad to assume that responsibility. The committee will also visit each room once or twice a week to see repairs are kept up, etc.

The Gazette has been asked, and gladly agreed, to furnish a daily paid advertisement for the merchants, and any merchant by paying a small sum per year may insert his business card. The ladies hope to see their efforts divided as fairly as possible among the contributors, and suitable mention made through the daily paper, that our farmer friends owe their improved surroundings to the public-spirited merchants of Janesville.

The remains of W. P. Cahill, the Illinois Central railway engineer, killed Monday when his engine turned turtle near Monroe, passed through Janesville last evening for Freeport, the home of the deceased, and from where funeral services were held and burial made today.

Cahill was killed in attempting to jump from his cab when his locomotive was derailed. The accident was caused by snow and ice, it is thought. When the engine began to reel, after having left the rails, Cahill jumped but was caught beneath the tender trucks as this section overtopped the embankment before going over. It tipped on its right side.

Accident men and railroad men worked for eight hours to release the man pinned beneath the tender.

Animal Actors.

The impression is created by an occasional moving picture of wild animal life that the beasts, in order to force them into poses for the camera, are cruelly treated. Nothing, however, it is said, is further from the truth. Careful investigation has shown that force is seldom employed, and wherever it has been used the film resulting has been unsatisfactory. Mr. Ernest A. Dench, an extensive investigator of this phase of the movie industry, declares that the dumb actors are given every consideration. The thrills experienced by the spectators are the result, in a majority of instances, of the very innocent expedient of placing a piece of meat at a strategic point. The animal leaps for it, and the cinematograph records every motion of the leap. The spectator, of course, sees nothing of the meat and concludes that cruelty alone could produce the picture thrown on the screen. "The animals," he concludes, "really have a much easier time than those that appear in trick acts on the stage."—Detroit Free Press.

Land of Cocoa.

Ecuador's chief product is cocoa. It is the largest grower of this commodity in the world. The bean is perhaps the richest and most highly flavored and is in great demand in the trade. Europe buys 80 per cent of this article, and although we are the biggest individual consumer of chocolate on earth, our merchants purchase but 20 per cent direct.

Let the want ads help you to get what you want.

WHY GRIP IS DANGEROUS.

It requires a good tonic laxative to keep the body counteracted the effect of the poisons created by the grip bacillus. An expectorant tonic with some laxative qualities is the safest remedy. Such is Peruna.

Mr. George E. Law, 13 1/2 N. Franklin St., Brazil, Ind., writes: "I am satisfied that Peruna is a wonderful remedy for grip, and I do not heartily endorse and recommend it."

FIGHT FOR TROPHY IN CHURCH LEAGUE AN EXCITING ONE

Even Though Congregationalists and Presbyterians Lead, Methodists Are Going to Finish Fast.

A great finish is expected in the church league race this year. The congregationalists, champions last year, are holding the prize trophy awarded them for a year's keeping, and this about, is causing no little envy among the other four teams. The hope of the Presbyterians and Methodists is to get the scalp of the ring leaders, and one of the remaining battles, and one of the beautiful trophy cups.

It appears that each team in the league is not given a sufficient chance to win the title. At present, the schedule calls for but four games for each team, or, each team plays the other four teams once. Bad luck in one game, under the eight game schedule, would therefore give the losing team another chance to get revenge. Many of the members of the various teams are beginning to realize this fact. As for example, on last Friday evening, the Catholics lost a hard battle to the Presbyterians. The final score was 24 to 18. Cronin, the best man on the Catholic team, was not in the lineup, on account of illness. This handicap for the Presbyterians was profitable. The Methodists, by one point, through hard luck in carrying goals. Last Friday evening in the second encounter, the congregationalists barely downed the Catholics 12 to 10. This game shows the strength of the Baptist team and also of the other teams. In fact, were the new schedule of eight games for each team adopted, the results would plainly be noticeable. The congregationalists would be no better than the other teams, because every team would be given a more even chance to come back. As all games have their breaks, one strong team might lose the title through a bad break in the important conflict.

During the remainder of this year, the race is going to be a startling and interesting one. The Methodists are working harder than ever, in hopes of trimming the leading Congregationalists. On Friday evening, February, the 12th, this will give the Carroll players a last chance to win the title. With Cronin playing later in the season, the Catholics will undoubtedly make things lively for the Baptists, who in turn should defeat the Presbyterians. If this does all ends as above stated, the league will be dead up and will necessitate extra games.

In the games played last Friday night, many of the spectators were far from satisfied with the officiating. For realize the burden of an official assumes when he accepts the critical job. Had there been more than five players present on any one squad, there would have been many players kicked out of the game for using rough tactics and for intentional fouling. Intense interest and an anxiousness to win a game, has been the reason for the roughness, is the idea, instead of any personal grudge. An attempt will be made by the league authorities to eliminate the "rough stuff" in the remaining games to be played.

SIX BICYCLE TEAMS AHEAD OF SCHEDULE

Four Leaders in Six-Day Race at Chicago Are Running Eight Laps Ahead of Record.

Chicago, Feb. 3.—Every one of the six day bicycle race teams was ahead of the 128th hour record at 7 a. m. today. The four leaders were then eight laps better than the record, and covered 2,507 miles and one lap. Sprints and jabs marked the hours from midnight to dawn and left Dean McNamara, Egg Verri, Doro Scherrey and Corry-Carmen in the lead.

GIBBONS, UNCROWNED CHAMPION OF CLASS

(By Hal Sheridan.)

New York, Feb. 3.—Mike Gibbons, the phantom-like boxer of St. Paul, is the best middleweight in the business. Despite howls to the contrary from Eddie McGoorty, Jack Dillion, Jimmy Clabby, et al., the lad from Minnesota is the nearest thing to a real champion the fans have seen since the death of Stanley Ketchel. He doesn't stand head and shoulders above his contemporaries, but he stands high enough that he can be easily recognized over their heads.

Before the Gibbons Clabby battle at Milwaukee several weeks ago, the Hammond boxer was considered about the cream of his division. He had a belt emblematic of the middleweight class. In his battle with Gibbons, Mike was an easy winner, according to ringside reports, and it was a real battle all the way. Clabby's friends argue that he can't lose his prestige in ten rounds, but Gibbons so clearly outfigured him in ten that it is safe to say he could also do it in twenty.

Two men remain to be disposed of before Mike's claim to the title can be absolutely unquestioned. They are Eddie McGoorty, the Oshkosh bear, and Jack Dillion.

Dillion hasn't been doing much business with the middleweights recently and the cry has gone up that the Hoosier can't make the weight. But Dillion contends he can and offers to prove it if the occasion demands. In a recent bout with Porty Flynn over in Brooklyn, Jack weighed 169 pounds and was so strong that he all but knocked the Boston fighter through the ropes for a long sleep. If Jack can make the figure he certainly should be given a chance at Gibbons.

McGoorty can probably make the weight with ease, and the Oshkosh entry has certainly proven that he is a contender.

So, if Mr. Gibbons will just go on and clean up the situation by disposing of or exposing these two, the boxing game will have its first unquestioned 155 pound king since 1911.

PROMPT ACTION WILL STOP YOUR COUGH.

When you first catch a cold (often indicated by a sneeze or cough), break it up at once. The idea that "it does not matter" often leads to serious complications. The remedy which immediately and easily penetrates the lining of the throat is the kind demanded. Dr. King's New Discovery soothes the irritation, loosens the phlegm. You feel better at once. "It seemed to reach the very spot of my cough" is one of many honest testimonials. 60c. at your Druggist.

"GROH, GROH, I WANT HIM SOH—OH, DON'T SAY NOH!" SINGS BRESNAHAN TO GARRY

Roger Bresnahan, after a brave but futile attempt last week to soften Garry Hermann's heart, returned to Chicago for another little rest. As soon as he gets his breath back he will return to the attack, the burden of his song being, "Groh, Groh, I want him soh—oh, don't say noh!" Just to show that he is fearless, Rog. has also asked Garry for Ruben Benton, and got the same stony stare.

MORRIS MILLER

Bill Rogers, the second baseman obtained from Portland by the Cleveland club, is one of the few recruits who will break into fast company without having to fight for his position. When the "Indians" sent Rogers to Philadelphia Bill Rogers got the title to second-base territory without any opposition. There is no other player on the team who will aspire to the position, and Rogers will be placed there at the outset of the trailing season, and if he comes up to the reports sent out about him from Portland he ought not have any trouble holding the position. Terry Turner is the only other Cleveland player who broke into fast company under similar conditions. He, too, did not have to fight for his position, for when he arrived in Cleveland from Columbus, some years ago, he made good from the outset, and had no opposition.

One of the many new pitchers to be tried out by the Brooklyn Nationals this year is R. H. Goodbred. Goodbred was born in Mayo, Fla. He is twenty-four years old and is a giant, weighing 215 pounds and standing six feet four inches. His release as purchased from the Oshkosh club of the Wisconsin-Illinois league. He played with Lansing in 1912 and with Oshkosh in 1913 and 1914. Goodbred pitched in twenty games to September 15, 1914, for the Oshkosh club, which won the championship of its league. Goodbred's record is eleven games won, three lost, taken out of one-half and finished two. The three games he lost were by scores of 2-4, 0-4 and 3-8. The average runs, hits, bases and strikeouts are as follows: Runs, 13; hits, 4; bases on balls, 2; and strikeouts, 5 a game.

A New York scribe remarks that "Wild Bill" Donovan is pulling an awful bone already in leading the public to believe that Pipp will be the first baseman next season. According to New York fans, the constant threats to pull him out of the game hurt Mullen's work last season and he just got going good after being convinced that he was a regular. It seems bad policy to impair the youngster's confidence before the season ever starts. Wild Bill is also quoted by J. E. Sheridan of the St. Louis Post-Dispatch as saying that he (Donovan) did not think that "Dutch" Leonard had much stuff. It is evident that Bill was in the international league last season, and not in the American, if he really made this remark. No, Leonard hasn't much stuff. Neither has Walter Johnson and Alexander. Nor did Ruben Waddell have anything. Leonard, according to expert judges and men who played against both, the nearest approach possible to the great and only Waddell.

Charles Courtney, Cornell rowing coach, has taken council with himself and the result is a sane and attractive program for the winter work of the crew candidates, which could be copied without injury by other rowing universities. Instead of compelling his men to report to the "crew room" in the gymnasium each day, Courtney has arranged a schedule whereby the varsity and freshman oarsmen are to report three times a week. If this scheme proves satisfactory, it will be continued and the entire squad goes on the water in March.

According to Parks Davis, intercollegiate football, during the past season, was played by 450 colleges, 6,000 secondary schools and by 1,500 teams not connected with educational institutions, but representing organized athletic associations, large and small. Thirty-four thousand games were played and 152,000 players participated in the sport.

Betting on a horse race is an absolutely certain losing proposition. A "racing expert" connected with one of the New York papers made this admission unconsciously while boasting himself as the greatest racing "tipster" in America. The "expert" in question, in reviewing his own labors for the year, stated that in 871 races he had picked the winner 272 times. He stated with a showing of pride, that he picked more winners than any other "tipster" in the country. He trots out facts and figures to show the truth of his assertion.

BASEBALL DECISION IS PROMISED SOON

Not Later Than Saturday Judge Landis Says Ruling in Baseball Case Will Be Forthcoming.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

Chicago, Feb. 3.—Decision in the federal league suit against organized baseball which it was alleged operates in violation of the Sherman anti-trust law, will be handed down not later than next Saturday. United States District Judge Landis, before whom the case was heard, made this announcement yesterday.

TOMMY GIBBONS WILL OVER WILLIAM MURRAY

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)

Hudson, Wis., Feb. 3.—Tommy Gibbons, brother of the famed Mike, of St. Paul, defeated Fighting Billy Murray in a ten round bout here last night. Gibbons won seven of the ten rounds, making a strong finish.

Erle Is Signed. Milwaukee, Feb. 3.—Johnny Erle of Milwaukee and Frankie Izzo of Chicago, two premier bantams, have been matched for a ten round bout at Kenosha.

OUTCOME OF BIG BASEBALL BATTLE IN CHICAGO MEANS MUCH TO O. B. MAGNATES

Here are some of the magnates of the National league who are just now engaged in a big legal battle with the Feds in Chicago. Garry Hermann is chairman of the national baseball commission, which the Feds hope to put entirely out of business. Gaffney is heavily interested in the Pirates, and Ackerman in the Cubs.

STORM RECOVERY SLOW IN CITY AND VICINITY

COMMUNICATION ESTABLISHED ON RAILWAYS—WIRE TROUBLE HAS SOMEWHAT ABATED.

TRAIN IN 20 FOOT CUT

Section Men Dig Out Engines on Milwaukee Road Near Monroe—Telephone Men Use Skills.

FACTS ON THE STORM.

Damages estimated to total $500,000 in fifty mile radius from Jansville. Local work resumed today following fair weather.

Street cars and interurban service began reaching normal service today. Five hundred telephone poles down in vicinity of city.

Repair men use skills, snowshoes and horses working out of towns to west. Phone lines being repaired as rapidly as employees can do work.

Telegraph companies able today to have communication with Chicago via indirect lines.

Travel on country roads in Rock county is hard because of deep drifts.

Jansville today recovered sufficiently from Monday's snow storm to be in telephone, telephone and railway communication with numerous nearby cities though service was summed under serious difficulties last night and yesterday afternoon. More work must elapse before conditions are normal.

Estimates from storm losses in a short radius from Jansville total close to $500,000. The Wisconsin telephone system figure $125,000 as a conservative estimate of its losses, while the Rock county people, the Western Union and Postal Telegraph companies with the railroads, are unable to give estimates at this time.

Telephone service to Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul and on the Chicago and Northwestern, makes progress slow although today trains from the Milwaukee office are good schedules.

The Milwaukee office at the depot reported that no connections with the Illinois Central could be made at Dill on the Mineral Point division, as the Illinois Central was badly handicapped on their line from Freeport north. The only line that had not been opened this morning on the Mineral Point division was from Shullsburg to Jansville. Expectations here, however, were that the Chicago and Northwestern would be in operation in the morning.

Trainmen returned today from Monroe where the worst tie-up on the Milwaukee road occurred, told interesting stories of the trouble. The trains stuck in a thirty foot cut this side of the city. The gale blowing with a velocity of forty miles an hour and the snow piled up upon the stalled trains. The engines, a caboose and a passenger coach were in the cut. Yesterday morning all that could be seen of the rolling stock was the high chimneys on the top of the coaches. Roadmaster Jackson arrived with the flanger yesterday noon. He also had with him a large force of men and a section men. The train was dug out, releasing six crews from Monroe.

Communication on the Wisconsin telephone company wires was established to Madison, Beloit, Rockford, Elgin, Evanston, Oak Brook, Monroeville and Evansville yesterday. Repair crews from this city were dispatched to the country districts on horses to repair broken circuits.

In the vicinity of Jansville alone it is estimated that 250 poles are down. It was expected that the Milwaukee and Delavan circuits will be connected by tonight.

Repair crews of the Wisconsin telephone company working in the rural districts about Plattville, for breaks. Lines are being repaired with poles, being covered with drifts to permit the use of bobs. Incidentally the work is taking considerable time as the amount of supplies being carried is small. Only temporary repairs are being made at the present time by the Wisconsin company.

R. Valentine of the Rock County telephone system stated this afternoon that more trouble was being experienced by his company in the rural districts than in the city. The cable plant here being under ground, the Wisconsin company is making use of the underground lines for toll service to a number of outside cities. Mr. Valentine said that $500 would most likely cover the damage to his company.

In the rural district near Broadhead the Rock County Telephone company is experiencing trouble. The Broadhead company uses the local firm's lines at this place and the poles, therefore, have been carried down by the heavy wires. The great weight was sufficient to cause much trouble and lines thereabouts are on the ground.

The Western Union Telegraph company was in communication with Chicago this morning via Rockford. A wire to Milwaukee was expected to be in condition for messages this afternoon. The amount of messages held back by the storm is giving a great amount of trouble in the storm-swept section and local Manager Frank Mohrns of the Western Union is swamped with work.

Similar conditions are being experienced by the Postal office. Their outlet to Chicago is Aurora. Between Rockford and Chicago a straight stretch of thirty miles of wire is on the ground. The repair department is undertaking a temporary circuit which should be repaired within the course of two or three days. It is impossible to string the wires on poles as the ground is frozen to a depth of seven and ten feet and practice is being made in this stretch have been broken off.

A Northwestern engineer arriving in Jansville from the north this morning reports hitting fallen telegraph poles and tearing down wires over long distance before the obstruction ahead of the engine was discovered.

On the interurban a tentative schedule was possible yesterday afternoon and last night following the arrival here shortly after two o'clock of the first car since Monday. Today a good schedule was maintained.

Superintendent Murphy of the local car line kept up a good schedule today although the slight wind gave considerable trouble in causing the snow to blow and drift on the tracks.

Providing there is not much more wind conditions should reach regular stages by Friday. A sale of present time would practically place wire companies and railroads in the same status as on yesterday and Monday.

Nurses Train on a Doll.

For use in training schools for nurses a doll has been designed, five feet tall, made of a finely woven material that is waterproof and has some of the "feel" of a human body. It is complete in every detail, even to the ear and nasal passages. It is used as a dummy on which beginners can practice the attentions they will later have to bestow upon patients.

The Roadside Grass Knot.

Close observers may have noticed in the neighborhood of country crossroads or where roads diverge a tuft of grass which has been tied into a knot at the top and probably considered the casual act of some idler, but such was not the case. Since time immemorial the grass knot has been used by the gypsies as a signal and sign. Usually it is intended merely as a guide for a second division of a party, indicating which road has been taken by the first section, but if necessary quite elaborate messages may be conveyed, a particular meaning being indicated by the character of the knot and its position with regard to the road—whether close to or at some distance from the wheel tracks or whether on the right or left of the right of way. The second party is even able to tell with considerable accuracy how long it has been since the first party tied the knot. This is accomplished by the breaking of a handful of the grass stems when the knot is tied, the degree to which such broken stems are wilted or dried being a pretty clear indication of the time that has elapsed.

Might Well Imitate Beaver.

You can pay no higher compliment to a man than to say that he "works like a beaver." The beaver is not only a hard worker but an intelligent and efficient one. If all human beings used their reasoning faculties to as good advantage as these four-footed creatures do their instinct or reason our civilization would undoubtedly have reached a far higher level than it yet has.

BRYAN FAVORS SHIP BILL IN AN ADDRESS

Secretary of State Talks to Chamber of Commerce With Plea for Support to Measure.

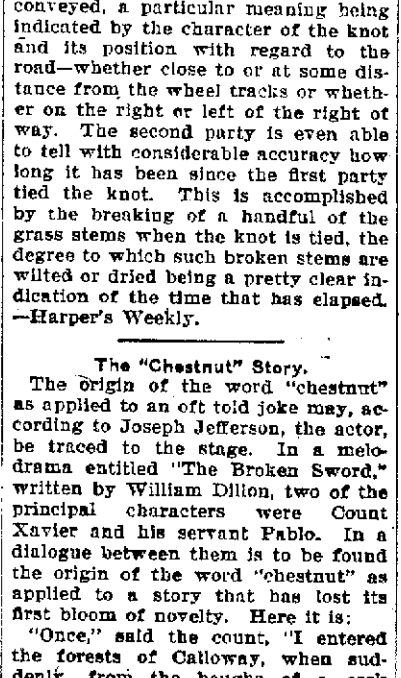

Washington, Feb. 3.—Secretary Bryan addressed the chamber of commerce of the United States here today with a plea for support to the administration ship bill and ratification of the Colombian treaty.

"The present war has shown us disadvantages to which we are subjected when we rely upon foreign ships to carry our merchandise," he said. "The interruption to trade incident to any great war throws a heavy burden upon the neutral nations. Steps already have been taken to largely increase our merchant marine, and the shipping bill is a still more important step toward independence upon the seas. Ships under government control will serve a double purpose. One permanent in its nature and the other important in an emergency which such as now exists."

The permanent advantage of government ships is to be found in the fact that they can establish new trade routes, acting as pioneers and going where private ships would be afraid to venture. It takes time to establish new routes and those who lay out such routes are liable to incur a temporary financial loss.

WILL NAME SENTENCE THURSDAY MORNING

Judge H. L. Maxfield Defers Sentence on Jas. O. Hoffman Until Report is Made by Bankers.

After hearing a complete history of James O. Hoffman, with its ups and downs, tragedies and victories, in the municipal court this morning, Judge H. L. Maxfield deferred sentence on the former until tomorrow morning. Hoffman appeared in court at ten o'clock and pleaded for a suspended sentence, basing his petition to the court on the fact that he had a wife and a fourteen-year-old girl, who were dependent on him for support.

According to the story told, Hoffman was engaged in a successful grocery business in a western state until his first wife ran away with a Methodist minister. Then he made his profession as a traveling salesman and an insurance agent. As both Chief Champion and local bankers requested descriptions of Hoffman, the court wished to determine if the confessed forger was ever guilty of other offenses.

"Now for our own camp. We'll just see where those plans are," he growled. Drake and the guide both protested in vain.

Safely away from pursuit, they lit a light and examined their find.

"It's the same one," Wilkerson said triumphantly.

"Made of metal, too," said Drake slowly.

"Now, where are the plans?"

"Inside of it," announced his companion, beating on the idol with his knuckles. "Now to find out the opening."

It did not take long for him to discover the movable eye, and when he had pulled that out he thrust his finger in and withdrew it with a folded paper.

"Safe and sound," he exulted, dropping the image to the ground, where charges had the horizon.

CHAPTER XXVII.

"A Traitor to John Dorr."

RUTH GALLON awakened at dawn and looked about her, trying to remember what had happened and where she was. Slowly there came back to her the scenes of riot in Bhala, the assault on the hotel and their own subsequent flight.

Around her the natives lay in postures of sleep. Not far away, within arms' reach, John Dorr was still unconscious of the new day.

Apart sat Sir Donald, rife on his knees, bowed in drowsiness after his night's vigil.

She called over to Faversham, and he roused himself, apparently much embarrassed that he had been found watching over the slumbers of his company.

"I know some awfully jolly Americans, too, missionaries. Then there's your American consul, you know."

It was settled at last, and they returned by easy stages to Bhala and thence down the river.

Sir Donald was as good as his word, and Ruth found herself invited to stay as a guest at several houses.

She chose that of the American consul, a middle aged gentleman, who, with his wife, presided with true eastern hospitality over a little group of business men and missionaries.

Mrs. Reynolds received the girl with open arms, listened to the story of her

"But that would leave me so far away!" Ruth protested.

adventures and thanked God devoutly that Ruth was at last under the protection of fellow countrymen. To John her language was plain:

"What in the world do you mean by dragging this young lady over half creation and making her run all sorts of risks?"

"Nonsense," said Mrs. Reynolds severely. "You even let her discharge her maid. And of all the awful things—it's a wonder you haven't got her killed before now!"

John tried to explain that Ruth was a western girl used to looking after herself and that she had insisted on coming along.

The consul's wife sniffed. "But you didn't have to come," she responded promptly. "I understand that you are merely going on idle gossip anyway. You shan't stir the girl out of my sight. I tell you! Go and find your plans and risk your own life. Miss Gallon stays here."

"And I'm sure there is no place I'd rather leave her," Dorr said gratefully.

To the consul he confided briefly that he was still determined to find the idol and get the hidden plans.

"You may be too late," was the quiet response. "A man named Wilkerson and another man and a lady have already gone up country, and I am informed that they are on the same quest."

"All the more reason why I should hasten," Dorr answered. "Every hour may be precious. I must see Sir Donald immediately."

To his surprise, Faversham was very cold about the second excursion.

"So long as it was a case of getting Miss Gallon and yourself out of a bad scrape, I did my best," he told Dorr.

"But I agree with your consul—an excellent fellow—that what you propose is ridiculous. The priests have ample warning, and I am informed that they took measures to secrete the idol. You can gain nothing by further search."

John argued with some temper, but Sir Donald was immovable.

And, as he most evidently had sound common sense on his side, Dorr could not afford to lose his temper.

"I suppose you'll let me out by

The First Object That Met Their Eyes Was the Image They Sought.

It lay staring grotesquely at the stars through its single eye.

Drake and Wilkerson carefully examined their find, and Wilkerson laughed almost hysterically.

"The gold isn't a thousand feet from the main tunnel of the 'Master Key' mine," he said triumphantly and thrust the plans into his bosom before Drake could see more.

"If those plans are lost or anything happens to you," Drake said, with an ugly note in his voice, "all our trouble goes for nothing. I am entitled to a copy of those plans."

Wilkerson laughed in his face, and the expression on his saturnine visage made even the brutal guide cringe back.

"Give you a copy!" he snarled. "When I've hunted for them all these years and suffered the agonies of hell on account of them? They're mine! All that gold is mine! Mine! Mine, I tell you!"

This last he almost shouted into the still air, and Drake drew back.

The man was mad. "At least let them have their idol," he muttered, picking it up.

Wilkerson snatched it away from him with a gesture at once childish and murderous.

"I think I'll keep this for a memento," he cried, careless of who might hear him.

He stood up, the image in his grasp, and before the sound of his blasphemy Drake and the guide crept away in silent horror.

And not far distant Faversham sat vigilant by the side of his camp watching over the sleep of Ruth Gallon.

Possibly it was an echo of Wilkerson's savage cry of triumph that stirred her in her dreams.

She sighed and reached out one slender hand. It touched that of John Dorr and rested there as if she had found safety.

Sir Donald saw that movement, and his eyes burned with jealousy. But he did not move, keeping his ears open for the slightest sound, his eyes for the faintest shadow between his

"Give you a copy!" he snarled.

A moment later the whole camp was up, and breakfast was soon dispatched.

"Now for a council of war," the baronet said presently. "So far we have made good our escape from the fanatics, and I believe now it would be wise to turn back and seek civilization again for the sake of Miss Ruth."

"Oh, I am good for any amount of this kind of travel!" she exclaimed. "And I am wild to go ahead and find the idol and the plans."

"So far as we know, they are in Bhala," Faversham remarked, with some brusqueness. "I don't intend that you shall risk your life again in such foolhardiness."

John Dorr had steadily grown more and more suspicious of the Englishman's attitude, and he now bitterly resented his assumption of guardianship over Ruth, the more so that he realized Faversham had extorted her once from a tangle of his making and was undoubtedly right when he proposed that she be placed in safety.

His first impulse was to insist that Ruth follow his plans, but second thought told him that he would be playing an unworthy part.

"Where shall we take her?" he demanded.

"Back down the river to some city where there are Americans," was the response. "Bombay would be best of all."

"But that would leave me so far away!" Ruth protested. "I know John will insist on keeping after the plans, and I don't want to be left out of everything."

John Dorr joined Sir Donald in arguing that there was little sense in going on a wild goose chase and that she would be far better off with good people of her own race.

"But who?" she demanded at last. "We don't know any one."

"I do," Faversham put in quickly.

URGES MEN'S CLUBS TO GIVE THEIR AID IN COMMUNITY WORK

Whitten Says Church Brotherhoods Can Co-operate to Advantage With Commercial Organizations.

Church brotherhoods can co-operate with the commercial organizations of a city for the development of community spirit, Thomas Whitten of Trenton, Mo., declared in his address last evening before the Baptist men's club.

"You men in your church societies are brothers," he said, "they are not your brotherhood out into the community to the assistance and betterment of your city and its citizens? Business follows education and that's religion."

Whitten had much to say in praise of Janesville and he predicted a big future for the city within the next few years. Just the right size, he said, not being too large, and the intimate acquaintance and co-operation of its citizens and not being too small to lack wealth and brains. With a fine body of wealthy, high-minded business men and plenty of brains and push and with a fine citizenship there is every opportunity for the mighty development.

Whitten again emphasized the importance of the farming community contiguous to Janesville and urged the relations between the two people and in this effort, he said, and will benefit themselves by it. The churches can make the farmer feel that he is a brother and that he mark a decided step in the spreading of community spirit.

Following Whitten's address Philip Whitehead gave an illustrated talk on the catacombs of Rome. He explained that the catacombs were not and simply the cemeteries of the early Christians and that they were not built for the purpose of refuge from persecution but for the purpose of worship at the graves of saints and of work there were often times shines at marble tombs where pilgrims gathered. The fact that the Roman law made cemeteries inviolable in the catacombs were used as hiding places.

Mr. Whitehead has spent several years in Rome as a student of early Christian archaeology and he has a large part of his attention to the catacombs. The importance of a study of these burial places, he said, was the intimate knowledge it gave concerning the life and beliefs of the average Christian of the period in contrast to the erudite writings of the early church fathers. The paintings and inscriptions on the walls of the tombs and the sculpture work all has its significance to the historian.

Whitehead explained that there were hundreds of miles of these underground tunnels in the hills outside the city of Rome. Many of the catacombs have not been discovered even about Rome and it is possible the digging of the network of tunnels is continuing the use of props or supports of any sort.

It was announced that the union brotherhood banquet will be held in March at the Y. M. C. A. building and that temperance would probably be the subject for discussion. Efforts being made to secure a speaker of national reputation. Arrangements for a ladies' night meeting of the first club in April will be with the committee on arrangements. Dr. J. R. Whitten with the leader of last evening.

PRINCE OF PILSEN PROVES DELIGHTFUL

Excellent Revival of Old Time Favorite Musical Comedy Heartily Welcomed.

Last night at the Myers theatre were again heard the tuneful and familiar airs that abound in "The Prince of Pilsen." The beauty of these songs such as "The Message of the Sea Shell" and "The Tale of the Sea Shell" and "The Stein Song" with its swinging Heidegger's "Pictures in Smoke" and others served to bring back memories of older days.

The story of "The Prince of Pilsen" tells of the adventures of a wealthy brewer from Cincinnati on his holiday trip to Nice. Wagner, the brewer is mistaken for "The Prince of Pilsen" and all about and he accepts the hospitality tendered him. While the merry-making is going on the real "Prince of Pilsen" arrives on the scene and greatly enjoying the joke decided to keep his identity to himself. The manager of the hotel, an excitable Frenchman, who thinks he is a personification of Napoleon, is conspiring with the enemies of the country for plans of their forts. Wagner lets fall the pass word unconsciously and the plans are turned over to him, who mistakes them for the ground plans of a brewery he is to build. While going over the plans he is placed under arrest as a spy. In the meantime the real prince falls in love with Wagner's daughter who accompanies him and in the end wins her. A wealthy widow becomes infatuated with the bogus prince and finally lands him. The curtain drops on a scene picturing everything as it should be.

John Ransome as Hans Wagner, German brewer, heads the cast in the principal comedy. Wagner has a pleasing personality and his eternal question, "Was You Effer in Ziazinatti?" evokes round after round of applause. Edna Von Luke as the "Princess of Pilsen" is a charming little lady with a most pleasing manner. Edward T. Mora as the real prince, carried his part ably and his voice added greatly to the entertainment. Dorothy Delmore as "Buttons," the bell boy, was delightful; Earl McHattie as the English lord, Geraldine de Rose as the vivacious Sidonie, Claudia Rogers as the demure Nellie Wagner, and Henry Cooke as Lieutenant Tom Wagner were all capable in their parts and together gave a royal three hours' entertainment.

DIVERS RECOVER LETTER FROM EMPRESS OF IRELAND. (Correspondence of the A. P.) London, Feb. 3.—A strange miscolored envelope arrived a few days ago at the home of Mrs. L. Fudge, Gower Street, London. It was stamped "Recovered by divers from the wreck of the steamship Empress of Ireland" and had come from the Dead Letter office at Ottawa.

Posted at New Glasgow, N. S., on May 25 of last year, the letter had gone down with the big vessel, the wreck of which in the St. Lawrence cost more than a thousand lives, and though under water for months, it reached London in surprisingly good condition. The mucilage which had held down the flap of the envelope was gone; the stamp was missing, and in places the ink of the address had run. The letter itself, however, was perfectly legible.

FEBRUARY MUST GO WITHOUT FULL MOON

Earth's Satellite Goes on Water Wagon for Twenty-Eight Days, But Will Make Up in March.

The moon is on the water wagon this month, and remain on throughout February. It won't get full once in the whole time, though suspicion is not wanting that it will weaken in its resolution toward the end and come pretty close to it Saturday, Jan. 30, was its last "full" until March.

February, 1915, will thus be notable over ordinary Februaries, which must be content with Ground Hog Day, St. Valentine's Day and the birthdays of Lincoln and Washington to make them distinctive. It is only once in a long while that the moon gets a dry streak like this. The almanacs say that it won't happen again within 2,500,000 years, and that the last time it happened was in February, 1866.

However, the earth's satellite has no intention of joining the "Dry" permanently. After holding back the moon for twenty-eight days in the coming month it will break loose on March 1 with its utmost fullness, and, as if to scoring practice, will be full again later in the same month, on March 30.

It is explained that the period of the moon's revolution about the earth with reference to the sun is about 29½ days, so that when full moon comes the day before the month of recurrence of fullness must be delayed beyond the twenty-eight-day period.

IF PEEVISH, FEVERISH, TONGUE COATED, GIVE "FRUIT LAXATIVE" AT ONCE.

No matter what ails your child a laxative should be the first treatment given.

Look at the tongue, mother! If coated, it is a sure sign your "little one's" stomach, liver and bowels need a gentle, thorough cleansing at once. When cross, peevish, listless, pale, doesn't sleep, eat or act naturally; if breath is bad, stomach sour, system full of cold, throat sore, or if feverish, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in just a few hours all the clogged-up, constipated, waste, sour bile and undigested food will gently move out of the bowels.

Sick children needn't be coaxed to take this harmless fruit laxative. Millions of mothers keep it handy because they know its action on the stomach, liver and bowels is prompt and sure. They also know a little given today saves a sick child tomorrow.

Ask your druggist for a 50 cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which contains directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups, plainly on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. Get the genuine, made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.

AMUSEMENTS

AT THE APOLLO.

May Irwin Tonight. May Irwin, in her greatest comedy success, "Mrs. Black is Back," is the unusual photoplay attraction at the Apollo tonight. This important association of famous star and play is a Famous Players-Paramount production. May Irwin's wonderful powers of mimicry, her keen sense of comedy and her mobile face, which enable her by a lift of her facile eyebrows, or an inimitable "May Irwin gesture" to convey an entire situation to her amused audience, render her an invaluable addition to the realm of photocomedy.

"Mother" Tonight. Jules Eckert Goodman's play "Mother" is the vehicle that Emma Dunn used to make her debut into the motion-picture world. She was the star in the play when it was seen on the stage, and with "Mother" her name has always been associated. The heroine of the play is the mother. She is the head of a family of six children. There are two grown boys, two grown girls and two small boys. She has been the mother of eight, but she has lost two of her dear ones. She is a plain little woman, whose whole life is her home and her children. So ideal is the visualization that Miss Dunn gives of "Mother" that she has become known as the finest interpreter of mothers visible on the current stage. In "Mother" Miss Dunn has given the stage and the screen a most memorable characterization.

AT THE APOLLO.

May Irwin Tonight. May Irwin, in her greatest comedy success, "Mrs. Black is Back," is the unusual photoplay attraction at the Apollo tonight. This important association of famous star and play is a Famous Players-Paramount production. May Irwin's wonderful powers of mimicry, her keen sense of comedy and her mobile face, which enable her by a lift of her facile eyebrows, or an inimitable "May Irwin gesture" to convey an entire situation to her amused audience, render her an invaluable addition to the realm of photocomedy.

"Mother" Tonight. Jules Eckert Goodman's play "Mother" is the vehicle that Emma Dunn used to make her debut into the motion-picture world. She was the star in the play when it was seen on the stage, and with "Mother" her name has always been associated. The heroine of the play is the mother. She is the head of a family of six children. There are two grown boys, two grown girls and two small boys. She has been the mother of eight, but she has lost two of her dear ones. She is a plain little woman, whose whole life is her home and her children. So ideal is the visualization that Miss Dunn gives of "Mother" that she has become known as the finest interpreter of mothers visible on the current stage. In "Mother" Miss Dunn has given the stage and the screen a most memorable characterization.

Miss Gladys Caldwell, Miss Idelle Patterson, Miss Anabel Jourdan, with De Wolf Hopper at Myers Theatre, Feb. 8th and 9th.

AT MYERS THEATRE.

The most important operatic event in the recent musical history of this city will be the appearance at Myers' Opera House Monday and Tuesday, February 8th and 9th, for three performances of De Wolf Hopper and the famous Gilbert and Sullivan Opera company which during the last years since its organization has made three triumphant tours across the continent and which will shortly begin its fifth annual season at the Casino Theatre, New York.

It is hardly necessary at this late day to dwell at length upon the peculiar talents and abilities of Mr. Hopper, who is everywhere recognized as the foremost comic opera comedian of his day and generation. However, to those who have never seen him in the Gilbert and Sullivan roles, which he is now essaying it may be stated that in the opinion of the most important critics throughout the country he is now doing the most important and most artistic work of his entire career. He will be seen in this city in four widely differentiated characterizations through the following operas: "The Mikado," "Pinafore," "The Pirates of Penzance" and "Trial by Jury." The last named piece is given as part of a double bill in conjunction with "Pinafore" which last named opera will, however, be given in its entirety.

The company comes here direct from the Auditorium Theatre, Chicago, and every member of the cast seen in that city will positively appear here. The productions shown there will be brought to this city intact and entire.
